“Don’t be discouraged. A bad semester or problems with your research can make

“The things you are doing for yourself are going to benefit them [your children]. How can you teach someone better than by example?”

~Margery Hannah, 2007 – 2009

“Find what you’re truly passionate about, and follow that passion.”

~Mikki Phan, 2006 – 2008

“The journey is long and hard but if you keep your mind on your goals, McNair will teach you what you need to know.

You just have to be assertive, and you will succeed.”

~Diane Brown, 2007 – 2010

“Never give up on your dreams. When times get hard (and they will) you’ve got to take a step back and think ‘Am I really willing to give up after getting so far?’ I hope the answer is ‘no.’ Encourage yourself, because sometimes you will have to. With God, all things are possible. Don’t forget it. May God bless you abundantly!”

~Sarah Cummings, 2009 – 2013

“Take advantage of this opportunity to learn about yourself: your strengths and weaknesses, your hopes and your dreams, and the countless possibilities that lay ahead for you. Then take this knowledge and make a difference in the world you live so that others can follow suit.”

~Salyi Vu, 2000 – 2004
